PRESS RELEASE

TPA Slovakia has a new partner – Mária Janušková

Mária Janušková has been with the TPA Group for almost 15 years. During her work for TPA, she has expanded her experience beyond the fields of international taxation, issues relating to permanent establishments (her favourite topic), expatriate taxation and social security to include corporation taxes, VAT, real estate, as well as mergers and acquisitions.

At TPA Slovakia, she has worked in a variety of functions, as business consultant, in various management positions, and most recently as director of the Tax and Payroll Department. In her new position, she will be responsible for the development of tax advisory and payroll outsourcing services for Slovak and international clients alike.

Mária graduated from the Tax System and Tax Counselling Program of the University of Economics in Bratislava. She subsequently obtained a tax advisor licence and became an active member of the Slovak Chamber of Tax Advisors. She made a dream come true by successfully completing a post-graduate course in International Tax Law at Vienna University of Economics and Business, where she obtained her Master of Law (LL.M.) degree.

Mária is also the chairperson of the SKDP Methodical Legislative Committee for Corporate Taxes. In this role, she and her colleagues comment on and prepare legislative proposals, organising and conducting conferences and various training events, including practical training for junior assistants of tax advisors.

Facts and figures about TPA Slovakia

TPA was founded more than 40 years ago in Austria. Today, TPA is one of Slovakia's leading specialists in the fields of taxation and audits. The TPA Group has established itself as a successful player in Central and Southeastern Europe.

In Slovakia, TPA provides the following services: tax advisory, accounting, auditing and consultancy. TPA is committed to a "face-to-face business" philosophy. Our work is characterised by expertise, know-how and an understanding of a wide range of industries. Our experts have a wealth of knowledge and experience covering fields such as real estate, energy, corporate restructuring, corporate legal structures, and pension law.

Beyond Slovakia, the TPA Group also operates in eleven other countries in Central and Southeastern Europe: Albania, Bulgaria, the Czech Republic, Croatia, Hungary, Montenegro, Poland, Austria, Romania, Slovenia and Serbia. Overall, the group employs more than 1,700 employees at 30 locations.

The TPA Group is also an independent member of the Baker Tilly Europe Alliance. We are therefore able to provide our clients with a worldwide network of tax advisors, auditors and consultants.

Due to our alliance with the Baker Tilly International network, the 12 locations of the TPA Group are perfectly connected at a global level, which means we are able to provide high-quality services in all major trading hubs and regions of the world.
